

ROCKEFELLER'S CONDITION BRINGS EXAMINATION TO AN ABRUPT CLOSE

SUFFERS SPASM OF THE THROAT WHICH LEAVES HIM ON VERGE OF NERVOUS COLLAPSE

Aged Standard Oil Magnate Submits to Questions at His Apartments on Isolated Jekyll Island—Answers Four Questions Which are Whispered to Stenographer Who Repeats Them for Committee—Growth in Throat Makes Condition Serious.

JEKYL ISLAND, GA., FEB. 7.—A spasm of the throat that left William Rockefeller, a straggling, trembling old man, on the verge of nervous collapse, abruptly terminated his examination by Chairman Pujos and Counsel Samuel Untermyer of the house money trust committee here today.

Mr. Rockefeller was asked just four questions, all practically immaterial, before the attack forced conclusion of the hearing.

The aged Standard Oil magnate was closeted with the committee only twelve minutes. At the end of that time he was assisted into his couch by Dr. Walter F. Chappelle, his physician, who declared his patient exhausted.

In Mr. Rockefeller's apartment in the apartment house Sans Souci on the isolated island that forms the estate of the exclusive millionaire club of Jekyll Island, the 72 year old Standard Oil magnate submitted to the questions. There ended the six months' search of the government process servers who sought the reluctant witness from New York to the Bahamas and who lay siege to his New York home. The net result of the examination, so far as the money trust investigation was concerned, added practically nothing of value to the record. It did demonstrate to the satisfaction of Mr. Untermyer and Mr. Pujos that Mr. Rockefeller was hardly a fit subject physically for a grueling examination on the details of his financial career. Members of the Jekyll Island club and Dr. Walter F. Chappelle tonight shook their heads doubtfully when asked about Mr. Rockefeller's physical condition.

Condition is Serious.
"Mr. Rockefeller is in a very serious state," said Dr. Chappelle. "He said that a new growth of a malignant nature recently had formed in Mr. Rockefeller's throat and that serious developments were to be expected at any time. Mr. Pujos and Mr. Untermyer and their clerks and stenographers immediately upon their arrival at the island were taken to Mr. Rockefeller's apartment accompanied by two of Mr. Rockefeller's attorneys and his physician, Dr. Chappelle. In the apartment were Mrs. Rockefeller and Mr. Rockefeller's two sons and his daughter, Mrs. McAlpin.

Mr. Rockefeller, bent and shaking, sat in a large arm chair behind a glass topped table. The trembling hands of the once active head of the powerful Standard Oil group of bankers, settled on the arms of his chair as he arose to greet his visitors. He did not remain standing long, however, as his whispered word of greeting was inaudible to even those nearest him. Mr. Rockefeller's chair was moved close beside that of the official stenographer.

Stenographer Repeats Answers.
When all preliminaries had been arranged, Chairman Pujos asked Mr. Rockefeller to be sworn. As he made an effort to rise the chairman motioned him back to his seat and with a trembling hand uplifted he took the oath.

As soon as he was sworn, the Standard Oil magnate handed to the stenographer a slip of paper with the whispered request that the stenographer read it.

"I am urgently advised and warned," read the stenographer, "by my physician, that this examination is precarious to the condition of my throat. I desire, however, to make the effort to rise the chairman motioned him back to his seat and with a trembling hand uplifted he took the oath.

"As I have lost my voice, I would esteem it a privilege, if you would permit me to whisper my answers to the official stenographer who sits beside me and who will read them aloud. It is impossible for me to write them."

This was agreed to and Mr. Untermyer stated the position of the committee which was to the effect that the committee would proceed with the examination with the understanding that both Mr. Rockefeller and his physicians were to advise them when at any time the witness' condition became such as to render further examination inadvisable. The head of the witness nodded assent and the examination began in earnest.

Answers With Difficulty.
"Where is your residence?" asked Mr. Untermyer.

The strained face of the witness bent close to the ear of the waiting stenographer. For a few moments the room was silent except for the wheezy breathing of the Standard Oil magnate and the scratching of the stenographer's pen. The stenographer read: "689 Fifth avenue, New York City."

"Referring to the statement just made by you, Mr. Rockefeller," said Mr. Untermyer, "it is currently reported that your health is such that you are able to play golf and indulge in sports of that sort, what is the fact as to that?"

After another pause the stenographer read the answer: "I have never played a game of golf in my life. I try to take open air exercise every day. That is the extent of my amusement, taking outdoor exercise."

"Do you recall the occasion of the organization of the Amalgamated Copper company?" demanded Mr. Untermyer.

The witness breathed heavily, his trembling hands clutched the table in front of him and he seemed to control himself with a great effort as he again leaned to the ear of the stenographer.

"I do," came the answer in the mechanical monotonous tone of the clerk.

"Was it in 1898?" Mr. Untermyer asked.

Once more the bent form of the oil magnate leaned toward the stenographer. He had hardly begun to move his lips before a straggling, whistling cough shook his frame. He fell back into his chair, a flood of red sweeping over the grey white pallor of his face. The trembling of his hands and the wagging of his head became more violent and the muscles of his face and neck contracted and expanded spasmodically.

"I think it was in 1899," was the answer.

The stenographer repeated the reply automatically, but he had scarcely spoken before Dr. Chappelle was on his feet. He hurried to the side of the witness and addressed Chairman Pujos.

"Mr. Chairman, I would like to take the liberty of drawing your attention to Mr. Rockefeller's condition at the present moment," said the physician. "He is showing some symptoms which precede the spasms of the larynx and I strongly urge you not to proceed as in doing so you are certainly endangering life. Since my appearance before the committee in Washington a new and more serious development has occurred in Mr. Rockefeller's throat. You can see his general shaking and he is now on the verge of a spasm of the larynx which might choke him."

Dr. Chappelle then swore to the truth of his statement as to Mr. Rockefeller's condition. The witness Untermyer turned to the witness.

"Mr. Rockefeller, you have heard Dr. Chappelle's statement. Do you feel in such condition that you think it unsafe to proceed further?"

The bent form swayed toward the stenographer and the throat muscles moved spasmodically as he endeavored to whisper:

"I certainly do."

"The chair states," said Mr. Pujos, "that in view of the declaration by Dr. Chappelle under oath and also that of the witness, Mr. Rockefeller, besides what is manifest from the appearance and condition of the witness, no further proceedings will be had at this time."

"I would be unwilling," Mr. Untermyer said, "to go further with the examination at this time from what I have just heard and observed as to Mr. Rockefeller's condition."

As the Standard Oil magnate leaned wearily back in his chair, Mr. Pujos and Mr. Untermyer left the room. Both publicly declared that they were satisfied that any further examination of Mr. Rockefeller was impossible.

JURY CLEARS BEACH OF CHARGE OF ASSULT ON WIFE

Alken, S. C., Feb. 7.—F. O. Beach was acquitted this afternoon in the Alken county court of the charge of assaulting his wife. The jury was out exactly one hour and forty-five minutes.

Mr. Beach was not in the court room when the verdict was read, having gone out to lunch during the recess, but he arrived a few minutes later and went to the jury box and shook hands with members of the jury.

Mrs. Beach did not return to the court room.

The foreman explained that the delay in reaching the verdict was due to the fact that one or two jurors wanted to "discuss everything under the sun except the case."

Mr. Beach returned to his hotel to join his wife.

Taft Will Be There.

GREEKS DROP BOMBS FROM AEROPLANE

AVIATOR MAKES SUCCESSFUL
FLIGHT OVER THE DARDANELLES

Drops Four Bombs on Arsenal at Maidos and Three More Are Aimed at Turkish Warships But Do No Damage.

LONDON, FEB. 7.—Fighting continues between the Turks and allies in southeastern Europe, but in the absence of independent reports the conflicting accounts from official sources provide no basis for critical judgment of what is happening. The most interesting news of the day received here told of a flight of a Greek hydro-aeroplane over the Dardanelles. Rumors continue to circulate here of the approaching renewal of peace negotiations. Nothing definite is known in this respect but Bulgaria and Rumania are about to resume at Sofia their negotiations on the frontier question which were recently interrupted at London.

It is understood that the last meeting of the ambassadorial conference discussed the Albanian question and the conferences argued for and against sending an international commission to the frontiers of the new Albanian state.

Makes Daring Flight.

Rome, Feb. 7.—A despatch received from the island Lemnos in the Aegean sea, says the Greek Aviator Moutis, accompanied by the Greek Captain Mariatmis, last night made a daring flight over the straits of the Dardanelles in a hydro-aeroplane which covered 180 kilometers. The despatch says that a thorough reconnaissance of the Turkish fleet was made and that the aviator then flew over the southern point of the Gallipoli peninsula and overlooking the Dardanelles, and dropped four bombs on the arsenal there.

The aviator reports, according to the despatch, that as his machine passed over the fleet he saw flashes from the vessels guns as they fired at him. The machine was not hit. Captain Mariatmis says he was able to make observations during the flight that were far more valuable than he had expected.

Receives Greek Premier.

Saloniki, Feb. 7.—M. Venizelos, the Greek premier, who has been attending the peace conference in London arrived here today and met with an extraordinary popular ovation. Thirty thousand persons were at the station to greet him, including Prince Nicholas of Greece, the military governor and a large assemblage of officials.

Replying to addresses of welcome M. Venizelos predicted that the war with Turkey would be of short duration.

Panic at Gallipoli.

London, February 7.—A despatch to a news agency from Constantinople describes the wild panic and flight of civilians from Gallipoli, owing to the advance of Bulgarian troops.

Many hundreds of persons, the despatch says, sought refuge on the railway transports sent there and numerous overloaded boats were overturned and hundreds of persons were drowned.

The despatch asserts that on Sunday and Monday fifteen thousand Turkish raiders landed at Midia from eighteen transports. They were well armed but without provisions. The raiders were ordered to scatter in bands of about 400 each throughout Thrace and maintain themselves at the expense of the population.

Bombs Do No Damage.

Constantinople, Feb. 7.—There was fresh fighting today in the region of Gallipoli and an aeroplane made a flight over the Dardanelles and dropped three bombs. These were aimed at the Turkish warships. Two of them fell into the water and the third exploded on the shore without doing any damage.

An official despatch issued tonight says:

"The enemy continues his movements along the Tchatalja line. Several encounters have occurred during these operations, all of them ending in the retirement of the enemy. An engagement near Palaia developed into a somewhat severe battle. The warship Idjalyas bombarded the enemy from Blyuk Chukmodyo, on the Sea of Marmora. "The bombardment of Adrianople continues night and day, but the damage is unimportant. The courage and vigor of the Turkish troops is admirable. "The enemy who has occupied it and is fortifying and entrenching the heights south of Zambilo. In the vicinity of Gallipoli were subjected to an artillery fire by the Turkish army and fleet."

Think He Made A Mistake
in Approving Plan
For Caucus

ASHTON WILL DRAFT BILL

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., FEB. 7.—For the first time since general assembly convened Springfield was practically void of politicians tonight. Senator Keckler of Ava, who is making his home in Springfield, was the only member of either branch of the assembly in this city aside from those from this senatorial district who reside here.

Friends of Colonel James Hamilton Lewis are much concerned over the prospects for the Democratic joint caucus called for next Monday night, as they think he made a mistake in approving the plan for a caucus on the senatorship.

Gives Reason For Choice.

Governor Dunne said this afternoon that he is for Colonel Lewis for two reasons. One because Col. Lewis was the primary election choice of his party for senator and this places a moral obligation upon the assemblymen to vote for him. The other is because Col. Lewis made a campaign over the entire state for the office and is entitled to it.

It is stated that if the members of the Hubbard-Huston faction in the Democratic party decide at their conference next Monday afternoon not to participate in the Democratic caucus, Col. Lewis will be in a serious predicament in the opinion of a number of his friends. He will be in the undesirable position of having demanded a caucus which is likely to be attended by none of his friends and all of his enemies. Such an outcome it is feared by his friends would practically eliminate him from the senatorial race.

Introduce First Measure Next Week.

The first of Governor Dunne's administration measures will be dropped into the legislative hopper next week. It is probable that the first one of these bills to be laid before the assembly will be that abolishing the State Board of Equalization and substituting a State Tax Commission to have charge of the revenue system of the state.

Representative Henry M. Ashton of the Third District will prepare and introduce this measure. Mr. Ashton has been accumulating data for several months relating to this subject and now has the subject sufficient well in hand to begin the work of drafting the physical bill.

Mr. Ashton left Springfield this afternoon for Chicago and between now and Tuesday expects to whip his measure into shape.

"Considerable care must be exercised in drawing a bill on this subject," said Mr. Ashton this morning. "It must be drawn so as not to require a constitutional amendment to become effective, owing to the fact that only one constitutional amendment may be submitted at one time and it is desired to submit the Initiative and Referendum in the next general election. I expect, however, to have my bill ready for introduction in the house next week."

Will Follow Inaugural Line.

The bill to be presented by Mr. Ashton will be drafted along lines laid down by Governor Dunne in his inaugural message. Mr. Ashton is one of the governor's close political friends and advisors and their ideas on this subject are identical.

Mr. Ashton is still unprepared, however, to join with Gov. Dunne in the latter's approval of the proposed Democratic joint caucus on the United States senatorships next Monday night. He is willing that a caucus should be had to select the Democratic members of a committee on committees but he is suspicious of the readiness of the reactionary Democrats to join in a caucus on the senatorships.

Practically all the active politicians left Springfield yesterday and Gov. Dunne had nothing new to impart this morning on the subject of the proposed senatorial caucus. He stated he had not been in communication with any members of the General assembly to day.

PARADE WILL BE LONGEST IN HISTORY

WILSON'S INAUGURAL PAGEANT UNIQUE IN MANY RESPECTS

Many of the Eastern and Southern Colleges Will Send Groups of Marchers Either in Uniforms or as Civilians.

Washington, Feb. 7.—The inaugural parade for President-elect Wilson now promises to be one of the longest and most interesting that has ever passed through Pennsylvania Avenue from the capitol to the white house. Aside from the strict-military contingents, the college representation will be one of the large and varied features.

Practically all of the colleges in the eastern part of the country will have representatives in the parade. Several smaller colleges in the southern states today signified their intention of sending groups of marchers, either in uniform or as civilians. The war department decided today that it may use a portion of its appropriation for army transportation which will include the West Point cadets trip to Washington, who had feared they would have to defray their own expenses.

For a time today danger of a strike of carpenters who are erecting the parade stands threatened to interrupt the work but the trouble was avoided. Employment of non-union carpenters to work on the stands for lighting purposes was said to have been the contention.

President Taft has already made his arrangements to depart from Washington to Augusta, Ga., immediately after the inaugural ceremonies have been completed.

Mr. Taft will make the ride down the avenue with his successor to the white house and will pass through that structure to the south portico, where he will take a white house automobile for the Union Station.

DEMOCRATS STILL OPPOSE CONFIRMATION

ATTITUDE AGAINST TAFT'S PENDING
NOMINATIONS MAY REACT

Some of the Republican Senators
Threaten to Retaliate After the Democrats
Come Into Power—Would Follow Policy of Obstruction.

WASHINGTON, FEB. 7.—Opposition of Democratic senators to the confirmation of President Taft's 1,000 pending nominations, has brought some Republicans into the position of threatening retaliation after the Democrats come into power March 4th.

The proposal is being discussed in the Republican cloak rooms and, it was learned to day, has been broached in the Republican caucus and the executive sessions of the senate.

Senator William A. Smith of Michigan, was the principle speaker in each instance. In caucus Senator Smith advocated a policy of obstruction to all nominations by President Wilson. He declared he would be willing to go as far as to oppose the cabinet nominations. In one of the executive sessions Mr. Smith told the Democratic senators they were pursuing a course which might react upon them. Senator Bradley of Kentucky, endorsed Senator Smith's position in the caucus.

Some Republican senators have suggested that opposition to President Wilson's appointments might be used as a means to checking tariff legislation.

Senators Root and Lodge and others have spoken against such a plan, and expressed especial disapproval of any effort to prevent the confirmation of Mr. Wilson's nominations.

It became known to day that in one of the executive sessions Senator Smith declared the course of the Democrats had been inspired by President-elect Wilson.

Discuss Treasury Order No. 5.

Secretary of the Treasury MacVeagh in a letter tonight to Representative Carter Glass of the house banking and currency committee which is investigating treasury order No. 5, criticised on the ground that it would result in the accumulation of $200,000,000 a year in gold in the New York banks from custom receipts, declared that the new plan of handling receipts and disbursements of the government did not involve an increase in the amount of bank deposits to any appreciable extent. An increase will not aid in the aggregate two or three million dollars if it reaches that sum, wrote the secretary.

Representative Glass called attention to an attack upon the new order by Rudolph Spreckles of California who charged that the order was put into effect to embarrass coming Democratic administration.

After hearing from Secretary MacVeagh and Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Bailey, Representative Glass stated that the treasury officials did not take the view that the new order was designed to or would embarrass the new administration and he expressed the hope that they were right.

The freight terminal is designed to permit of the loading of 9,320 cars on two levels. A meeting of the railway terminal commission to discuss the matter further will take place next week.

LITIGATION OVER EDDY ESTATE ENDS

Heirs and Trustees Consent to Proposed
Court Decrees

ACT IS PASSED BY HOUSE

Measure Allowing Church to Accept and Use Money
Made a Law

FOUR STIPULATIONS ARE MADE

BOSTON, FEB. 7.—Litigation over the bequest of $2,000,000 made to the First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Boston, by Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy, ended today when her natural heirs joined with the trustees of the church in proposed decrees entered in the several courts involved.

Coincident with this action the Massachusetts house this afternoon concurred with the senate in an enabling act which permits the mother church to accept and use the money for the advancement of Christian Science, as directed by its founder.

Four stipulations compose the decrees which were entered simultaneously in the courts of Massachusetts and New Hampshire and the federal court for the district of New Hampshire.

In these George W. Glover of Lead, S. D., and E. J. Foster-Eddy, of Waterbury, Vt., son and adopted son of Mrs. Eddy, abandoned their suits for a share in the estate and renounce their claims to the money left the church.

Church Trustees Make Concessions.

The trustees on their part consent that the administrator shall pay $5,000 for the assignment of the sons' contingent right to renew in their life time the copyright upon their mother's published works. They further consent that the trustees holding $175,000 (which is the trust fund portion of the $290,000 settled on them by Mrs. Eddy in 1909, in lieu of their share of the estate), shall not further claim that their rights in that fund were forfeited by their action in subsequent court proceedings. As one of the attorneys representing Glover-Foster-Eddy, Herbert Parker said tonight:

"The stipulations from the viewpoint of the heirs finally and conclusively terminate all present litigation and preclude the possibility of further litigation by them with respect to the disposition of the estate."

"The termination of this litigation has been brought about amicably and voluntarily on the part heirs, and all parties have joined in mutual consent to the entry of the proposed decrees on the several courts."

Ends Two Years' Contest.

It is maintained by both parties that no consideration other than that shown in the stipulations influenced the retirement of the heirs from a contest that has occupied the courts for more than two years.

Mrs. Eddy died at Newlon, Mass., Dec. 1, 1910. Her will, which disposed of an estate of about $2,500,000, left approximately $2,000,000 in trust to the First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Boston. The two sons, who a year before her death had received from Mrs. Eddy $290,000 in satisfaction of all claims against her estate, attacked the will in January, 1911, invoking statutes of New Hampshire and Massachusetts which limit bequests to churches to sums not exceeding annual income of not more than $5,000 and $2,000 in the respective states. Eventually the question of the validity of the will reached the supreme courts of both states.

In New Hampshire the will was upheld. The supreme court of Massachusetts ruled that the $2,000,000 bequest could not be received by the mother church, but at the same time declared that the will of the benefactress should be respected. That this might be accomplished, the trustees of the church obtained the introduction into the legislature of the enabling act passed today.

Washington, Feb. 7.—William Jennings Bryan Jr. has given up his home here, resigned from the presidency of the freshmen class of the Georgetown university law school and gone to Arizona, it became known here tonight, because of the illness of his wife.

OPPOSES INCREASED WOODMEN RATES

T. E. RYAN, ORGANIZER OF INSURGENTS HEARD HERE.

Made Address at Special Meeting of Camp 152 Friday Night—Reviewed Court Cases to Show That No Good Reason Had Been Shown For Increases—Impugnated Motives of Head Camp.

A special meeting of members of Camp 152 M. W. A. was held Friday night to listen to an address by Hon. T. E. Ryan of St. Charles, Ill., state organizer of the Insurgent Woodmen of the United States. K. C. Johnson, venerable consul of the camp introduced the speaker who in a very clear and lucid way explained the reasons for the insurgent movement. He pointed out that while a victory was won through the decision made in the injunction suit by Judge Shirley that it is necessary to organize thoroughly in order to be certain that the victory is of lasting benefit. Mr. Ryan was given close attention, was frequently applauded and at the conclusion the members voted to make a substantial contribution to the fund necessary in carrying on the work of organization among insurgents.

Sees Motive in Head Camp Order.
Mr. Ryan reviewed something of the history of the Modern Woodmen of America, showing its wonderful growth and prosperity and he maintained that at the convention held last year in Chicago that not only were rates raised in a wholly unnecessary way but that certain seemingly minor changes were made in the constitution which will make it possible for the head officers to have more complete control of the organization. He said that one change provides that delegates to the national body shall be chosen by the local camps, but according to the by-laws which the head camp has laid down. Another provision he asserted was made so that in event the high rates actually going into effect and the organization disintegrating that the few remaining can divide amongst them the big surplus of millions in the treasury.

The speaker said that the death rate of Woodman in the year 1910 was 5.24 on the thousand while the rate among old line companies runs from 8 to 9. This he said disapproved of the claim that the members were dying off at such a rate that more money must be paid into the treasury. Continuing he said: "The M. W. A. now has in its treasury, $12,367,000. Of this sum $7,847,527 is invested in bonds and the rest of it is kept in the accounts of various officers. Instead of carrying millions in bank balances the money should be invested for in an emergency case the regular assessment will bring in within thirty days, $1,350,000."

Would Drive Out Members.
"During 1912 there were 322,767 members who dropped out because of the fear of increased rates and it is a safe guess that one-half would go out if the rates actually did go into effect. This would leave the order with one-fourth of its present membership and it would soon go to pieces. This I think was the aim and purpose of the head officers when the new rates were ordered. In December the official organ of the order suggested that the head camp would fight the increase case if it was necessary to use up all the money in the treasury to do so but in the January issue the statement was made that the officers had decided all possible effort to have the rates raised until the meeting in 1914. The only reason for this action was the court decision compelling it. Actaries who testified in one of the trials stated that at the present rate of assessment in order to meet obligations from the death of members that during the fifteen years the total number of extra assessments would not number more than fifteen."

Mr. Ryan sounded a note of warning about the fraternal society bill which will be introduced at the present session of the legislature and said that it is worse than the famous Mobile bill. Among other documents quoted were the following paragraphs from the decision handed down by Judge Shirley:

"It is not claimed there is any present necessity for a raise in rates, nor does any appear. With the present rate and an average of assessments less than twelve years ago the society had accumulated in the benefit fund on December 31, 1911, $9,075,501.19, by means of the assessments producing more than the fund required, while in the general fund there were $660,933.44. These accumulations have not decreased but have continually grown. The society itself has had a phenomenal growth until its membership has reached nearly a million, two hundred thousand. In its career of twenty-eight years it has paid to beneficiaries of its deceased members, about $105,000,000. It has always paid in full, and never defaulted. With this record of achievement it is clear that the society is in no danger of insolvency in the near future. The time may come when the mortality list may grow by reason of the advancing age of members until the present rate is inadequate as testified by the experts in this case, but this contingency and the rate to be fixed will depend upon the continuous growth by new blood, lapses, and other incidents. The evidence of experts shows the mortality rate is as low or lower than that of any other insurance company by reason of the high moral and physical standard of its membership, and the care and prudence used in the admission of new members."

PUBLIC SALE.
I will sell at my farm 4 1/4 miles southwest of Franklin and 1/4 mile south of Providence church, 24 head of horses and mules, cows, and farm implements, Wednesday, Feb. 12, 1913.
Geo. Leake.

only as will insure the discharge of its obligations to its beneficiaries and not the accumulation of a large and unnecessary sum to be in constant danger of loss. This would not be in accord with the purposes and policy of a fraternal benefit society whose power is limited by Section 1 of the statute to the duty of assessments on surviving members to pay benefits to the beneficiaries of deceased members, and that section must be construed in connection with Section 8, providing for the accumulation of a surplus.

Enormous Surplus Proposed.
It is estimated that the proposed change in rates would produce an accumulation or surplus of from $15,000,000 to $20,000,000 a year. In ten years at this rate it would amount (not including interest) to the sum of $150,000,000.00. Certainly it would accumulate a very large sum. The court is of opinion no such accumulation was contemplated by Section 8 of the statute, and that for this reason the rate fixed by the by-law is excessive and an unreasonable burden upon complainants and all members of the society and not binding on them.

The obligation of the member of a fraternal benefit society is to furnish his equitable proportion of a fund necessary to pay the benefits due to the beneficiaries of deceased members. This is the extent of his obligation and no greater burden can be imposed upon him. It is a difficult problem to so distribute the burden among members of all ages that it may rest equitably upon each, but it can be done approximately. If it becomes necessary to readjust the rates it should be done gradually and only as necessity required and not in such a degree as to be an unnecessary and unreasonable burden upon the member.

He should not be assessed to create a surplus for the benefit of future generations of members. Such society is not an old line company, dealing at arms length with its policyholders, and while as already said the rates of the society may be raised if necessary to create a surplus reasonably necessary to pay its beneficiaries, it is not to be commingled in effect from fraternal benefit society into an old line insurance company, whose purpose is to create a large surplus by a plan of assessments instead of annual premiums.

WAVERLY REVIVAL.
The First Methodist church of Waverly is in the midst of a great spiritual awakening. Sunday, Feb. 2 was the beginning of the third week and was a great day for the church. Forty-one persons have taken Christ as their Savior during the campaign and about twenty have been reclaimed and the whole church has been quickened and strengthened. We hope to see many more saved during the next two weeks.

Rev. J. M. Beedles, D. D. of Denver, Colorado is our evangelist and he is safe and sane in every way. He has no superior in the pulpit among the evangelists of our country. Notwithstanding the bad weather and worse roads the church has been filled each night and some nights a number were turned away.

The singing is led by Prof. Faust of Chicago who has proven himself an able director of the choir and congregation and a splendid soloist. Special music is a feature of each service.

Aged Soldier Walks Into Mississippi River and is Drowned—Relatives Thought to Live Here.

Chief of Police Davis received a telegram Friday evening from John Michaels of St. Louis, announcing that Charles Hulscoetter, an old soldier 65 years of age, walked into the Mississippi river Friday and was drowned. The telegram said that the deceased was not very well known in St. Louis but had often spoken of having relatives in Jacksonville and Morgan county.

The body of the old man was taken to the morgue and the telegram was sent here in an effort to locate the relatives of the man, if he has any here. The name is not given in the directory. Chief Davis will probably get into communication with Mr. Michaels today to learn further particulars regarding the case.

WHITE HALL HIGH SCHOOL DEFEATED BY ROUTT PLAYERS

Locals Take Lead in Latter Part of First Half and Win Easily.

In a return game with White Hall, played at Liberty hall Friday night, Routt College High easily defeated their opponents by a score of 21 to 12.

The game was a very clean exhibition of ball tossing and was witnessed by a large crowd of eager spectators. Both teams started the contest with a determination to win and kept the score very close until the latter part of the first half, when the locals moved in the lead, gradually increasing their margin as the game progressed.

For White Hall, Kirgan played a good game, having three field and one foul goal to his credit; Richards secured one field goal and two foul goals, and Marshall one field goal. All of the local players put up a consistent game and Caldwell showed up well against the team from his home town. Alexander secured three field goals and seven foul goals, Donovan two field goals and Groves two field goals, and Butler played a good game at left guard. Vermillion of White Hall was highly complimented for his fairness in refereeing the contest. O. Cain as umpire; Hickson, timer, and Walsh, scorer.

The line-up of the two teams follows:

SOUTH SIDE CIRCLE.

Pleasant Gathering at the Home of Mrs. J. G. Strawn.

The members of the South Side circle met Friday afternoon with Mrs. J. G. Strawn on South East street. There was a large attendance and an interesting and profitable meeting was held.

Mrs. Nelson Murphy had the paper of the afternoon, her subject being "Africa: Witch Craft and Superstition." It was a splendid paper, well written and presented. Following its reading the subject matter was discussed freely by the members.

For roll call responses were made relative to trees and plants of Africa. Following the program a social hour was enjoyed and elaborate refreshments were served.

The next meeting will be held with Mrs. William Newman with Mrs. Albert Baldwin as leader. Her subject will be "A Trip across the Sahara and resources and industries of Africa." Something relative to Abraham Lincoln will be used at roll call.

ANOTHER "MILLING IN TRANSIT" CASE.

Toronto, Ont., Feb. 7.—A case of international interest, involving a question of freight rates and privileges, came up for argument before the railway commission here today. The point at issue is the recent order of the commission cancelling proposed tariff changes by the Grand Trunk and Canadian Pacific roads, abolishing stop-over privileges on international lumber shipments, except those destined exclusively to points in the United States. The question is really the same as that involved in the "milling in transit" controversy that has been threshed out in the United States courts. Heretofore the Canadian roads have accorded the privilege of forwarding at the through rate raw lumber from the shipping point to some intermediate point where it is manufactured, and then shipping it on again to its destination for a slight advance over the regular rate which would be charged for unbroken forwarding. It is this privilege which the Grand Trunk and the Canadian Pacific now propose to abolish.

GAINING THE WORLD; LOSING THE SOUL.

Last night a good crowd listened to a sermon on the great text "What is a man advantaged if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul." This text finds a striking illustration in the parable of the rich farmer who talked to his soul as if it were made of flesh and blood but to whom the Lord said: "Thou fool, this night thy soul will be required of thee." The great battle of the ages is between the material on the one side and the spiritual on the other. The world is a fascinating possession. God made it to awaken and interest the race. He so made this world that life here would be full of interest and delight to men but it was not in God's purpose that its attractions should cause men to neglect their spiritual natures in the pursuit of the world. Indeed he intended that this world with all its charms should suggest to us the greatness of the eternal world. If God made this material world so great and wonderful where man is to stay for so short a time, how much more wonderful and glorious must that vast realm be where the immortals dwell throughout eternity.

Rev. Mr. Miller has announced a strenuous program for next week. The full program has been arranged and published and will be distributed throughout the city. Something new in the way of themes will be presented. The service will begin with a song service with some of the best soloists assisting. The sermon will have a prelude on a vital, local moral condition, lasting ten minutes, the sermon lasting about twenty minutes. Doubtless many will hear those discourses.

The meetings will reach many homes effectively before meeting closes. Already a large number of members have been secured by the workers and pastor of the church. There are many others considering beginning the christian life and uniting with the church.

Sunday will be a big day at Grace church. Decision day services will be held in Junior part of the Sunday school. At all the services revival messages will be heard. The Sunday night theme will be "A Guest at the Banquet." No service Saturday night.

STORY OF OPPRESSION IN SOUTH AMERICA

INDIANS IN PUTUMAYO REGION VIRTUALLY SLAVES.

Conditions There Laid Bare in Report Transmitted by Taft to Congress—English Rubber Concern Keeps Natives Working Under System Marked By Barbaric Atrocities.

Washington, Feb. 7.—With the transmission to congress to-day by President Taft of a special state department report on Anglo-Saxon exploitation of South American Indians in the Putumayo district of Peru conclusions on the same subject by Frederico Alfonso Pezet, Peruvian minister to the United States, were made public by the state department.

The latter statement shows that the Peruvian government has been aware of every step taken by American Counsel Stuart J. Fuller and the minister gives assurance that already steps have been taken by his government for the improvement of conditions in the Putumayo territory. Although it was at first feared that Consul Fuller's efforts had been rendered valueless in many respects by the espionage of agents of a British rubber company, state department officials now are hopeful that the crying abuses of which the native Indians have been long suffering victims, eventually will be terminated.

Will Rely on Catholic Hierarchy. In bringing the Putumayo district under the protection of Peruvian law and the administration of justice, the minister points out that his government will rely largely upon the co-operation of the Roman Catholic Hierarchy.

"The moral uplift of the Aborigines has received very special attention," says Minister Pezet. "The administration has decided to erect at Iquitos, our Fluvial port on the Amazon, a bishopric and to establish at different places in the region five missions. There will have a sufficient number of priests to serve the spiritual needs of the Indians as well as to furnish instructions."

By thus living with and among them, the Indians will be effectively protected from any new attempts to maltreat or brutalize them in any manner or form. He says the government at Lima will seek to keep in constant communication with the Putumayo country by wireless and a flotilla of gunboats will patrol the streams in the district to see that there is no return to the old outrages.

"Nothing will be neglected," he continues, "which can possibly be done to protect the native races from such brutalities as unfortunately have occurred in the past. As a result of the investigations by the Peruvian judicial commission the several parties indicted for the crimes against the aborigines will be brought to justice and such of the criminals as had fled the country will be brought back as soon as the proper extraditions can be obtained."

Peru Will Punish the Guilty. President Billingshurst has decided to punish the culprits and I am sure that in Peru the same as elsewhere every right-minded person has been incensed against the perpetrators of the horrors in the Putumayo region.

Reports upon which this government and though in come from many quarters and though in most cases they are somewhat vague and speculative, they are strongly of the same general tenor—that it was no longer thought wise to permit American interests in central America to remain exposed to any dangers.

In Salvador where for a long period peace has prevailed the attempted assassination last Tuesday of President Arango, by a band of conspirators is believed here to threaten seriously although the president to day sent assurances to his minister that the country was quiet.

From time to time have come rumors of rebellious movements in Honduras and unrest in Guatemala, while in New Orleans there are gathering soldiers of fortune and adherents of Zelaya the deposed dictator credited with sinister designs on the government of President Diaz of Nicaragua.

To meet the situation so far as it is possible at this stage the navy department has ordered the warships to proceed south.

A twentieth century story of Anglo-Saxon exploitation of South American Indians rivaling as a narrative of heartless cruelty tales which have come down from the old Spanish captains, was laid bare today in a special state department report which President Taft transmitted to congress. The present day victims of a mediaeval system of barbarous oppression are the Indian tribes of the Putumayo district in Peru. It is shown in the report that these helpless people have been driven to their death before the lash wielded by the Peruvian Amazon company, an English concern which works the rubber fields in the Upper Amazon country.

Live in Remote District. Little hope for the relief of the long suffering Indians is held out in the report for the Putumayo region is remote from the seat of Peruvian government and Stuart J. Fuller, American consul at Iquitos, Peru, who made the investigation, finds that the travesty on justice which exists in the rubber section is entirely in the hands of the rubber company's section chiefs. It is the Putumayo country's remoteness from the Peruvian capital, from all governmental authority that has left the natives entirely at the mercy of the company, according to the report. The Andes form an almost impassable barrier to the westward while, to reach the outside world through the Atlantic ocean, river craft must traverse almost the entire 3,300 miles of the Amazon. Railroads are unknown and no highways exist. In this far away corner with no means of appeal or redress, the Indians were held at the mercy of the company's overseers. When they failed to bring in a toll sufficient to satisfy the demands of the overseers, flogging, mutilation, and sometimes death followed, it is asserted. Several of the overseers are declared to have admitted that they had put Indians and even white laborers in stocks for minor offenses. Many of the Indians whom Mr. Fuller saw, bore scars of floggings and other maltreatment.

System of Peonage. Mr. Fuller found that the labor of the Indians is secured by a system of peonage based on advance of merchandise. Although payment is made for this labor, it is declared to be nothing more nor less than forced labor. The temptation to abuse is imminent and strong, especially since the white staff is offered a large salary. He reaches the conclusion that, considering the remoteness of the country and the poor quality of the rubber, it is unlikely to make the enterprise pay without hard treatment of the Indians. Although large numbers of the Indians have been killed, and some have escaped into the South American jungle, the output of rubber has increased despite the decrease in native population. With governmental machinery absent, Mr. Fuller is of the opinion that, should the rubber corporation cease its activities, the Indians would fall to no better lot at the hands of freebooting expeditions and slave raiders.

Whites Consider Indians Slaves. Mr. Fuller finds that ancient, deep rooted attitude of the white population toward the Indian is a formidable obstacle to be overcome in any solution of the problem presented. While professing not to approve cruel and inhuman treatment, the whites generally regard the Indian as having been created by providence for the use and benefit of the superior race. This attitude of the people has found concrete expressions in the universal system of peonage, an old institution, which Mr. Fuller found, well established, recognized by law and the basis upon which the rubber business almost entirely rests.

Debt is declared to have been the chain with which the Indian has been fettered. By being encouraged to buy more imported goods than they could ever hope to pay for, they have been reduced to what Consul Fuller found was virtually slavery. As claims are transferable, the person of the debtor being transferred to the new creditor, the Indians and their families really are bought and sold. Families pass in indebtedness from generation to generation.

While Mr. Fuller found evidence that the company had mended its ways to some extent, he saw much unquestionable evidence that cruelties still are practiced. Overseers Retarded Investigation. All the while that Consul Fuller was attempting to get at the facts in the rubber field situation, it is declared, his steps were dogged by the company's agents, making it difficult for him to obtain any information but such as it was desired he should procure. The Indians, who were friendly enough and willing to talk through an interpreter, are said to have covered and passed into silence whenever the vigilant overseers approached.

Although the company against which the charges of cruelty are laid, still is in control of the Indians, Consul Fuller hopes ultimately for mitigation of their suffering through the efforts of President Billingshurst, who, since he assumed the leadership of the Peruvian government, has shown by acts and utterances that his policy would be vigorous regarding the Putumayo question. He believes that before long drastic measures will be taken to end forever all forms of abuses committed against the defenseless natives of the Putumayo, whom he found to be not wild and untamable but mild, docile, inoffensive and childlike, as described by Sir Roger Casement, British consul general at Rio de Janeiro, who investigated the situation in 1910.

Imported Barbarous Men. It was the disclosures made in Sir Roger's report that influenced the state department to order the investigation which Consul Fuller now reports. Sir Roger found that among other things the Peruvian Amazon company imported 200 Barbados men, who upon their arrival in the rubber district, were armed with Winchester rifles and sent into the jungles to capture and enslave Indians dwelling along the upper Amazon tributaries. The British consul found that in the exercise of his illegal compulsion, the Indians were murdered, flogged and otherwise tortured, the company, through its agents forcing the Barbados men actively to participate in the atrocities in order to compel the helpless natives to scour the forests and bring in Indian rubber upon their backs from the remote districts. The Barbados men in turn complained of harsh treatment accorded them by agents higher up, who deprived them of food as a means to compel them to drive the Indians to further extremes. The entire plan of operations seemed to be based on a system of oppression from the highest to the humblest in the employ of the company, which is declared to have welded always an iron hand from the far away London office.

Those who urge the submission by the present legislature of an amendment to the revenue article of the constitution along the lines recommended by the Illinois special tax commission, declare that such a step will be conservatively progressive, and give real relief from an antiquated tax system that is unworkable therefore immoral and unjust. They point out that in states which have clung too obstinately and too long to the general property tax, the tide of reaction has set in strongly toward the other extreme—the single tax, or land valuation taxation.

This is particularly evident in such of these backward states as have the initiative, because the single taxers always have sufficient force to circulate initiative petitions and put their pet question on the ballot. In Missouri the people voted down the single tax amendment last November, but the single taxers will try again at the first opportunity. In Oregon they put their amendment on the ballot in 1908 and it was overwhelmingly defeated by a clear majority of all those voting at the election. In 1910 they put up a similar proposition, but led off with the statement that its aim was to wipe out the objectionable pole tax, and the affirmative prevailed, although it was only 37 per cent of the total vote cast at the election. Last November the voters of Oregon adopted an amendment repealing the single tax victory of 1910, but W. S. U'Ren and his single tax followers say they will try again in 1914.

Radical Change Unnecessary. The theory of the single tax is that land should pay all taxes; improvements and personal property none. Harrison B. Riley of the special tax commission has said of it: "The real gist of the single tax theory is that owners of vacant land will be compelled to erect buildings or to be eaten up by taxes. This, in my judgment, is not taxation, but another attempt to repeal the law of supply and demand."

Those who favor the tax amendment, proposed in Illinois, deem it fortunate that the agitation for relief from present conditions takes the sensible direction of seeking to tax justly escaping property, instead of attempting a radical change for which economic conditions are scarcely ripe.—H. A. McKee, secretary, Illinois Farmers' Institute.

NO REASON FOR IT When Jacksonville Citizens Show a Way.

There can be no reason why any reader of this who suffers the tortures of an aching back, the annoyance of urinary disorders, the pains and dangers of kidney ills will fail to heed the words of a neighbor who has found relief. Read what a Jacksonville citizen says:

Mrs. Dora E. Price, Plum street, Jacksonville, Ill., says: "A few months ago I was attacked by pain across the small of my back and some time after an attack of la grippe affected my kidneys. The kidney secretions became unnatural, causing me much annoyance. I had often heard about Doan's Kidney Pills and resolving to try them, I procured a supply at Armstrong's Drug Store. Soon after I began using them the pain disappeared and my kidneys were restored to a normal condition. I willingly allow my name to be used in recommending Doan's Kidney Pills."

Radical Change Unnecessary. The theory of the single tax is that land should pay all taxes; improvements and personal property none. Harrison B. Riley of the special tax commission has said of it: "The real gist of the single tax theory is that owners of vacant land will be compelled to erect buildings or to be eaten up by taxes. This, in my judgment, is not taxation, but another attempt to repeal the law of supply and demand."

Those who favor the tax amendment, proposed in Illinois, deem it fortunate that the agitation for relief from present conditions takes the sensible direction of seeking to tax justly escaping property, instead of attempting a radical change for which economic conditions are scarcely ripe.—H. A. McKee, secretary, Illinois Farmers' Institute.

NO REASON FOR IT When Jacksonville Citizens Show a Way.

There can be no reason why any reader of this who suffers the tortures of an aching back, the annoyance of urinary disorders, the pains and dangers of kidney ills will fail to heed the words of a neighbor who has found relief. Read what a Jacksonville citizen says:

Mrs. Dora E. Price, Plum street, Jacksonville, Ill., says: "A few months ago I was attacked by pain across the small of my back and some time after an attack of la grippe affected my kidneys. The kidney secretions became unnatural, causing me much annoyance. I had often heard about Doan's Kidney Pills and resolving to try them, I procured a supply at Armstrong's Drug Store. Soon after I began using them the pain disappeared and my kidneys were restored to a normal condition. I willingly allow my name to be used in recommending Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

NOTICE

To Farmers and Stock Raisers

We are now manufacturing under State License, the best Brand of hog food on market known as "SURE FATTEN HOG FOOD". It is far superior to any Brand of Hog food on the market to day. It is guaranteed under the Pure Food and Drugs Act, June 30th, 1906, Serial No. 47,673. Guaranteed analysis as follows:

Crude Fat . . . . . 10.00 to 14 per cent
 Crude Protein . . . . . 52.50 to 60 per cent
 Crude Fibre . . . . . 1.00 to 3 per cent
 Phosphate . . . . . 10.00 to 12 per cent

What Is "Sure Fatten Hog Food"

It is a dark colored granular meal, made from meat residues, and it supplies the protein and phosphates necessary for compounding a balanced ration in most economical and palatable form.

It contains phosphates in proper proportion to insure strength of bone and frame work. In the corn belt bone development is a matter of serious consideration.

It is not a substitute for corn, but a small quantity fed in connection with corn or other grains gives a balanced ration. It is the most economical source of digestible protein known, containing twice as much protein as oil meal and five times as much as middlings, shorts, shipstuffs, or alfalfa meal.

TANKAGE is recommended by all leading experiment stations. It is packed in one-hundred-pound burlap sack, plainly marked "SURE FATTEN HOG FOOD," analysis as above.

It is the ideal feed to balance rations.

What "Sure Fatten Hog Food" Tankage Does.

It develops bone and muscle in young pigs and makes them grow. It matures a hog for market in two and three months quicker than corn alone, thereby, saving one third of the feed bill, one third of the labor, one third of the risk, increasing profits one third.

It grows better proportioned hogs, more meat, a more fat, hence market-topper hogs. SURE FATTEN HOG FOOD TANKAGE fed hogs ship well with small shrink.

While in nowise a medicine, it so fortifies and strengthens the system against attacks of disease germs that SURE FATTEN HOG FOOD TANKAGE fed hogs are universally healthy hogs.

CLEANLY WOMAN.

Scalp That She Cures Dandruff.
 Cleanly woman has an erroneous idea that by securing the scalp, which removes the dandruff scales, she is curing the dandruff. She may wash her scalp every day, and yet have dandruff her life long, accompanied by falling hair. The only way in the world to cure dandruff is to kill the dandruff germ, and there is no hair preparation that will do that but Newbro's Herpicide. Herpicide by killing the dandruff germ, leaves the hair free to grow as healthy Nature intended. Destroy the cause you remove the effect. Kill the dandruff germ with Herpicide. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

INDIANS WILL CELEBRATE WILSON'S INAUGURATION

Tribes Plan For Big Pow-Wow and Demonstration Near Toppenish, Washington.

Spokane, Wash., Feb. 7.—Woodrow Wilson would cancel some of the plans made to celebrate his inauguration by Indian tribes of the Columbia and Yakima valleys, but he has nothing to do with it.

There are a great many of the Indians are disappointed because they will be unable to join the delegation of red men at the inaugural ceremony at Washington. So they are going to have one of their own and it will last five days.

While the big chief from New Jersey will not be present, the Indians will have a real celebrity of their own. He is Chief Stwir Waters, grand chief of the Brotherhood of North American Indians. The celebration to mark the accession of Mr. Wilson will be held at the ranch of Chief Waters, near Toppenish, Wash. Starting on the morning of March 1 it will continue until midnight of March 5.

At the hour set for the Wilson inaugural several thousand Indians, all in war regalia, will parade the streets of Toppenish. Squaws will accompany their braves.

Several floats will feature the parade. One will portray the red men on their last warpath, with the ballot as their weapon. Another will carry a number of Indian tepees, with the "cooking fire" which the ancient people used.

Three huge steers will be barbecued for a big feast, to which the palefaces of the surrounding country will be invited. Other features will be contests of athletic skill, broncho busting and pony races.

Tribes in all parts of the Pacific northwest will be represented at the ceremonies in Toppenish. A number of Indians from this district also will be in Washington during the inauguration.

Conductor S. L. Miller, Norfolk, Neb., on Bonsteel Division of C. & N. W. Ry. Co., recommends Foley Kidney Pills and says: "I have used Foley Kidney Pills with very satisfactory results and endorse their use for any one afflicted with kidney trouble. They are all right." City Drug Store—J. A. Obermeyer.

MARRIED BY CARDINAL.
 Baltimore, Feb. 7.—The historic Baltimore cathedral will be the scene of a notable wedding tomorrow when Miss Eleanor Douglas Wise, a member of one of the oldest families in the south, will become the bride of Due de Richellen, the head of the well known family of that name in France. Cardinal Gibbons will perform the marriage ceremony, which will be followed by a wedding breakfast and reception at the Stratford hotel. After a honeymoon trip abroad the couple will take up their residence in New York city.

WEATHER IMPARTS ZEST TO TRADING

SPRING SHIPMENTS ARE GOING FORWARD IN VOLUME

Merchants Display No Particular Apprehension Over Prospective Tariff Changes—Most Industrial Enterprises Sold Ahead.

New York, Feb. 7.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say:

Trade is expanding, visiting buyers are increasing their purchases as the season progresses and in consequence February opens conspicuously. Spring shipments are going forward in volume; retail dealers continue to press jobbers for goods; colder weather has imparted zest to final distribution industrial operations are as active as heretofore. Winter wheat is in good shape; money is in active demand and save in a few lines, merchants display no particular apprehension over prospective tariff changes.

Most industrial enterprises are sold ahead—the textile mills for a couple of months and the steel plants for a half year.

Farmers are holding their coarse grains, and lower temperatures have brought more firmness in prices for foodstuffs.

Money is in good request and banks continue to be liberal buyers of commercial paper, the supply of which is not abreast of demand. Business failures for the week ending Feb. 6th, were 259 which compares with 323 in the like week of 1912. There were 41 failures in Canada.

Dun's Review of Trade.
 New York, Feb. 7.—Dun's review tomorrow will say:

No important change has taken place in the business situation during the last week. The leading industries and trades still are prosperous and the undercurrent of conservatism that exists in some quarters has not retarded to any extent the steady broadening of industrial and mercantile activity. The Balkan situation has caused some financial strain abroad and part of the heavy European gold requirements have been shifted to this side. This, in connection with the demands occasioned by our increasing domestic trade has imparted a slightly firmer tone to the money market. The open winter, while somewhat unfavorable to retail trade, has afforded a stimulus to various branches of industry. Building and allied lines, for example have been generally active and the unusual weather has added materially to the already large traffic of the railroads, whose gross earnings during four weeks of January increased 12.9 per cent. Notwithstanding the strike in the clothing industry the important textile trades are prosperous. Recent snow has improved wheat conditions.

BANK CLEARINGS.

Madam—Whether you need flour today or not, you'll do well to trade with the dealer who sells Zephyr Flour

IN the retail trade, when a dealer gets the agency for Zephyr Flour, it is considered positive evidence that he stands high in his community as a man and high in the trade as a square merchant. It means, too, that the flours in his store are of highest quality.

Zephyr Flour

We have spent endless care, time and money perfecting Zephyr Flour, the famous hard wheat flour of Kansas. We wash it and wash it and grind it and grind it, watching it all the while. Cooks who use it get a reputation for their bread and cakes, their biscuit and pies.

It is so good, so sure, that we sell it with a positive guarantee to satisfy. Any Zephyr Flour dealer will, on request, return the money paid for any sack of Zephyr Flour that fails to please.

Save the chemist's test certificate of the wheat and flour, found in each sack of Zephyr Flour. It assures uniform high quality of another sack from your dealer or from us.

EFFORTS TO AWAKEN INTEREST
FAIL
Trading Tapered Down to Small Proportions and Market Flattens Out in Same Monotonous Tone of Recent Days.
(By Associated Press.)
New York, Feb. 7.—To those whose interest in the stock market lies in the opportunity for speculation which it presents the action of the market today was disappointing.
The pronounced dullness of recent days has been explained partly on the ground that the market was awaiting news of the plans for regulating the Harbinger line but announcement of the terms overnight failed to stimulate trading to any appreciable extent. One reason advanced for the continued sluggish-ness was that the essential features of the plan had been disclosed in advance of the official statement, which contained little of importance that was unknown.
At the opening of the market today some effort was made to awaken interest. Traders bid up prices generally and the volume of business in the first hour was considerably larger than yesterday. But the pace did not hold. Trading tapered down to small proportions, and the market flattened out in the same monotonous plane of recent days. The tone was precipitously firmer. Union Pacific displayed strength at times although Southern Pacific dragged, being sold on the theory that the sale of Union Pacific's holdings of this stock would increase the floating supply.
The copper issues were strong. The check in the decline of copper metal abroad strengthened these shares and induced some short covering.
The copper producers' statement of an increase in stocks on hand of nearly 18,000,000 pounds was in keeping with preliminary estimates and had no market effect upon the copper shares. Local traction stocks recovered from their recent weaknesses.

AT THE GRAND TODAY.

"The Littlest Rebel," Edward Peple's stirring and spectacular military play, will be at the Grand this afternoon and night under the direction of A. H. Woods. Mr. Marshall Farnum, who starred in this play last season under the same management with signal honors, will be seen in the role of Capt. Cary of the rebel army. "The Littlest Rebel" is without a doubt Mr. Peple's greatest achievement. It is a kaleidoscope of the happenings during the three months just before the "Yanks" closed in on Richmond, Va. It is a stirring panorama of events, rich with pathos and intensely dramatic, and one is gripped with the realism of all that war meant. Pretty Viola Savoy, who is said to be one of the cleverest child-actresses on the American stage, will be seen in the title role. Fifty people are employed in the great battle scene. The original production is carried.

HANDS BURNING ITCHING, DISFIGURED

Cracked and Swollen. Could Not Sleep. For 2 Years Nobody Could Cure His Eczema. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Completely Cured.

605 Lowell Place, Chicago, Ill.—"The trouble began by my hands burning and itching and I rubbed and scratched them till one day I saw little red sores coming out. My hands were disfigured and swollen, and troubled me so that I could not sleep. They were cracked and when the small sores broke a white matter would come out. I could not do any hard work; if I did the sores would come out worse.

"For two years nobody could cure my eczema, until one day I thought I would try the Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I used warm water with the Cuticura Soap and after that I put the Cuticura Ointment on my hands twice a day for about five or six months when I was completely cured." (Signed) Sam Marcus, Nov. 28, 1911.

Not only are Cuticura Soap and Ointment most valuable in the treatment of eczema and other distressing eruptions of skin and scalp, but no other emollients do so much for pimples, blackheads, red, rough skin, itching, scaly scalp, dandruff, dry, thin and falling hair, chapped hands and chapped nails, nor do it so economically. A single cake of Cuticura Soap (25c.) and box of Cuticura Ointment (50c.) are often sufficient when all else has failed. Sold throughout the world. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address postcard "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

For tender-faced men should use Cuticura Soap Shaving Stick, 25c. Sample free.

U. S. DISSOLVES THE SHOE LAST TRUST

GOVERNMENT TAKES QUICK ACTION IN DETROIT CASE.

Decision Lays Down Principle That it is Unlawful to Tie Together Patented and Unpatented Articles—Krentler-Arnold Hinge Last Company Principal Defendant.

Detroit, Mich., Feb. 7.—"The boot and shoe last trust" fixing, it is alleged, the price of practically every last sold in the United States, was dissolved here today by the federal government in quick time. Immediately following the filing of a civil anti-trust suit against the Krentler-Arnold Hinge Last company and numerous other last manufacturers with whom it was allied by agreements, United States District Judge Arthur J. Tuttle entered an agreed decree terminating license agreements insofar as they fixed the price of unpatented lasts and dissolving a club through which the alleged violation of the Sherman law was accomplished.

The decree in effect lays down the broad principle that it is unlawful to tie together patented and unpatented articles so as to fix the price of the unpatented commodity. Neither the government's petition nor the decree questions the right of a patentee to fix the price of a patented last.

Many Defendants Named.

Defendants of the suit were named as follows: Krentler-Arnold Last company (Detroit); Krentler-Broscamp (Detroit); Crawford, McGregor & Canby company (Dayton, O.); Rehman company (Cincinnati); St. Louis Last company (St. Louis); Chicago Last and Die company, Boston Last company, Rochester Last Works, Woodward & Wright Last company (Cambridge, Mass.); George E. Belcher Last company (Stoughton, Mass.); Hawthorn Last Co. (Brookton, Mass.); Gilbert Last Co. (Worcester, Mass.); Marlboro Last Co. (Marlboro, Mass.); New York Last Co.; John Pell & Sons (Newark, N. J.); Stewart & Potter Co. (New York City); R. S. McNeil Co. (Brooklyn, N. Y.); Philadelphia Last and Pattern Co. (Portsmouth, O.); Nathaniel E. Arnold and George F. Atwood, North Abington, Mass.; Thomas W. Gardner, H. K. Gardner and H. L. Wood, Lynn, Mass.; Frederick Drew and Augustus A. Delano, Brockton, Mass.; George H. Van Pelt, Chicago; F. W. Stewart, Beverly, Mass.; W. E. Bigelow, Worcester, Mass.; C. C. Kempton, S. S. Redifer, Oscar Redifer and William C. Root, Philadelphia; L. C. Wadleigh and J. H. Hovey, Haverhill, Mass.; Edwin O. Krentler, Detroit; William H. Crawford, Dayton, O.; Charles S. Dennis, Chicago; and Fred Drew, Brockton, Mass.

The defendants manufacture, it is declared, 75 to 80 per cent of all shoe and boot lasts in the United States and thus dominate and control so far as price is concerned, the entire interstate commerce.

Issued License Agreement.

Instead of manufacturing its patented lasts and their parts exclusively, Krentler-Arnold Hinge Last company issued license agreements to other manufacturers in which the latter agreed, it is said, to maintain the prices of all lasts in accordance with a schedule of prices furnished by the former. The purpose of these agreements, it is charged, was to fix arbitrarily and unfairly high the unpatented lasts, the latter price of both patented and forming about fifty per cent of the business, so as to enable the Hinge Last company to exact exorbitant price for its patented lasts.

Prices are fixed and unreasonably high profits obtained, it is declared, largely through an organization known as the Cary club, composed entirely of the licensees of the Krentler-Arnold Hinge company.

By the agreed decree, in which the defendants disclaim all intention of violating the Sherman law, they are restrained from continuing the alleged unlawful features of their agreements, and from further maintaining the Cary club.

The government's petition signed by Attorney General Wickensham, James A. Fowler, assistant to the attorney general, and Malcolm A. Coles, special assistant, was filed by United States Attorney Clyde I. Webster.

If your skin is yellow—complexion pallid—tongue coated—appetite poor—a bad taste in your mouth—a lazy no-glad feeling—you should take Olive Tablets.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—a substitute for calomel—were prepared by Dr. Edwards after 17 years of study with his patients.

These Olive Tablets oil the bowels—yet have no oily taste. They are a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil.

If you want a clear pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days, you must get at the cause. Olive Tablets act on the liver and bowels like calomel—yet have no dangerous after effects. They start the bile and overcome constipation. That's why millions of boxes are sold annually at 10c and 25c per box.

"Every little Olive Tablet has a movement all its own." Take one or two nightly and note the pleasing results.

MEMBERS WILL SIGNIFY LINE OF WORK THEY WANT

Secretary Fritchey of Chamber of Commerce Sends Out List of Questions.

The members of the Chamber of Commerce received yesterday a return postal card requesting a answer of three questions from each person. The officers are desirous of having this information before any committees are appointed. The work of the organization will be apportioned to one of the seven main departments, and this means has been agreed to classify the members according to their interests and desires.

The work of each department will be under the supervision of an executive committee of five. President Andrews is giving special attention to recommending to the Directors for appointment of the best men suited for the particular work in which they are most interested.

The Merchants Free Transportation performs an important function for the retail members of the Chamber of Commerce. The refunding of railroad fares is a strong inducement to bring people to trade in Jacksonville and everyone must spend at least $15.00 in order to receive their rebate. New rebate books are soon to be printed and this opportunity is given any new members of the Chamber of Commerce to affiliate with this association. Each member pays only his pro-rata share on all fares refunded and any advertising which the Association decides to do.

The Questions

The various departments are indicated on the cards as follows and the members are requested to answer three questions.

- Dep't of Industry and Transportation—New industries, tariff rates, trains service, etc.
- Department of Publicity—Advertising, educational, festival, etc.
- Department of Rural Affairs—Crop improvement, good roads, land development.
- Department of Retail Merchants—Credit rating, free fare association.
- Department of Public Affairs—Streets, lights, parks, water, etc.
- Department of Finance—Revenue, membership, collection, auditing.
- Young Men's Boosters Club.

1. Please indicate as many of the above departments as you wish actively identify yourself with.

2. Do you wish to become a member of the Merchant's Free Transportation Association?

3. What evening would you suggest for the regular monthly meeting?

Mr. and Mrs. J. Herman expect to leave tonight for New York city to visit the markets for new goods.

TO BE TRIED ON CHARGE OF WIFE MURDER.

Springfield, Ohio, Feb. 7.—With the fixing of the date for trial, public interest has been revived in the case of Dr. Arthur B. Smith, who has been confined in the county jail here since last November, facing a charge of having murdered his first wife, Mrs. Florence Cavileer Smith. The trial, which will begin early next month, promises to be one of the most sensational of its kind that has taken place in this section of Ohio in many years.

When Florence Cavileer Smith died suddenly March 18 last the community was shocked, for she was said to have been in excellent health, but no suspicion was aroused until Dr. Smith, on October 1, married Miss Mabel Merchant, at her former home in Newton, Mass. Miss Merchant for several years was a nurse in a local hospital and she was called in many cases by Dr. Smith. They were intimate friends before the first Mrs. Smith died.

On October 16 the county officials ordered an examination into the cause of the death of Mrs. Florence Cavileer Smith, and the body was exhumed. Dr. Coone, pathologist, reported that death was not caused by organic heart trouble, as stated by her husband, and also stated in the death certificate. A chemical analysis of the stomach is said to have revealed unmistakable traces of cyanide.

As a result of the physicians reports the grand jury on November 21 returned an indictment against Dr. Smith. The indictment contained four counts. The first alleged that Dr. Smith administered cyanide in a cup of cocoa, the second charged that he administered cyanide with a hypodermic, while the third alleged that he administered an unknown poison with cocoa and the fourth that he gave his wife poison with a hypodermic, the nature of which is unknown.

All calculations, based upon the average past seasons, have proven useless. While trade in general has been brisk and we have absolutely no complaint to make about our treatment at the hands of the people in Jacksonville and vicinity, we must say that there obviously has not been the usual demand for winter clothing of medium and heavy weight. Now, what we want to say is, that for the reason above, we have left some most astonishing bargains in this season's high grade Suits and Overcoats for men and boys and coats for women and children. We are not going to quote prices, but just ask you to make us a call at your first opportunity and let us demonstrate the amount of real money we are in a position to save you and the satisfaction you will find in trading at the

J. H. S. LOSES TO SPRINGFIELD

FINAL SCORE IN BASKETBALL CONTEST 29 TO 19.

Jacksonville Plays Strong in First Half and Goes to Pieces in Second Half—Frye Star For J. H. S. and Frisbee For Springfield.

(Special to Journal)
Springfield, Feb. 7.—The Springfield basketball team defeated the aggregation from Jacksonville High school in one of the fastest games of the season here tonight, by a score of 29 to 19. At the end of the first half the score was 12 to 6 in favor of the Morgan county lads. A rally in the second half saved the day for the red and black. Frye for Jacksonville starred, making five field goals, while Schneider played best for the locals, making four field baskets and one from foul.

ILLINOIS COLLEGE MEETS NORMAL UNIVERSITY TONIGHT

Another fast game of basketball is scheduled for this evening when the Illinois college basketball team meets the Illinois university five. A week ago Normal defeated Illinois by a score of 45 to 15 in a game played at Normal. Coach Harmon is of the opinion that this score does not really represent the strength of the two teams and expects to demonstrate that fact to the visitors when they line up against the varsity quintet this evening in the college gym.

Considerable shifting of players has been the rule or order with Coach Harmon the last two days and he is expecting to get some better results and take on a winning combination. There is no question about Normal being fast as they defeated the swift Wesleyan players by a score of 28 to 11.

Illinois will have the following men to pick a team from tonight: Jaccard, Gary, Cline, Schaffer, Hunziker, Strotter, forwards; Tandy and McLaughlin, center; Atchison, Johnson, Furr and Stewart, guards.

Normal will probably use the following line up: Benjamin and Kasbeer, forwards Courtwright, center; Westhoff and Briggs, guards.

At the regular meeting of Jacksonville lodge No. 152, K. of P., held Friday evening, Layton McGhee was given the rank of page.

THE ILLINOIS-MICHIGAN CANAL

Indications Are That Traffic This Spring Will Be Heavier Than Ever Before.

With the opening of navigation this spring the indications are that the Illinois & Michigan canal will see larger traffic and a greater number of cargo boats operating than any time in a decade.

This statement is based on letters and inquiries received by the canal commissioners during the winter months. The letters were from shippers, many of whom are willing to begin operations in the expectation that the growing sentiment for the revival of waterway traffic will result in the legislature granting funds for the enlargement and betterment of the old canal.

The commissioners said today that the outlook for practical use of the state's waterways is the most encouraging that it has been during their administration.

Two fleets of barges will be put into operation early by Jay Morton for the purpose of carrying salt to a trans-shipping point in Iowa. These fleets will operate over the I. & M. canal, the Hennepin canal and a small portion of the Mississippi river. Mr. Morton had one fleet of three barges in operation at the close of navigation and since then boat builders have been rushing his order for a new fleet. His additional barges will be so constructed that they can be lengthened out if the canal is ultimately enlarged.

Representatives of the Chicago Peoria & St. Louis Transportation Co., have been busy during the past few months securing old barges from other canals which they expect to use in getting their lake-to-the-gulf traffic under way. It is their plan to start a racket from LaSalle for the gulf on March 1. During the season they contemplate moving at least 150,000 tons of commodities from Chicago to LaSalle by barges and there reloading onto river steamers.

One of the big steel companies has been negotiating for barges, terminals and docking facilities and has announced its intention of hauling sand from its mills from points along the canal. For the time being it will operate only enough barges to act as a safety valve in times of car shortage. Should the canal be enlarged its officers state, they will put 800-ton barges into service at once and keep them going every day.

A clay mining company at Utica is now trying to get barges for trade with trans-Mississippi points which will help solve the transportation problem until rehabilitation is effected.

So confident are many of the big shippers of the outlook for rehabilitation and enlargement that they have already begun negotiations with the canal commissioners and other land owners for dock and terminal sites along the old water course. A Louisiana cypress company has informed the commissioners that it has instructed its Illinois agents to secure a site for a distributing station between Chicago and Joliet. Heretofore this firm has brought its lumber by a barge as far as Cairo and there reshipped by train for the north.

Another firm has asked the commissioners to lease a terminal site near the central part of the canal. A railway company which lacks terminal facilities in Chicago is trying to secure the site for an elevator on the canal below Joliet, where it can trans-ship grain to the barge route and unload it at Chicago elevators during the car shortage periods.

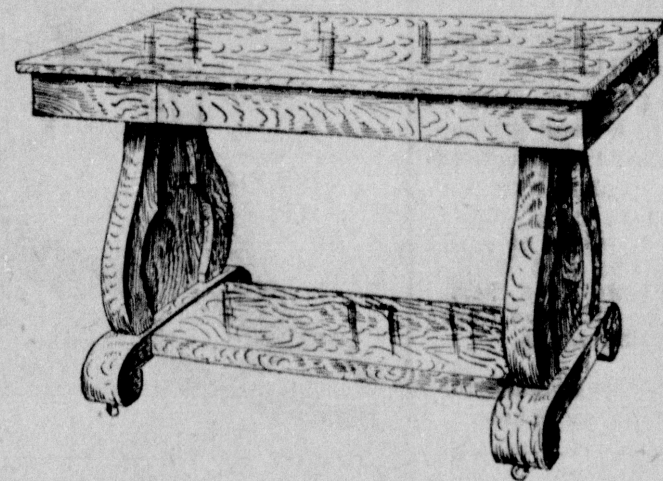

"It would be expedient for the state board to make public the names of those who are negotiating for sites until the deals are closed," said Superintendent McDonald. "There has, however, been a great awakening of interest in the canal and the waterways of the state generally. There should be about 250,000 tons of freight go over the canal during the coming season. Of course most of the shippers who are investing in boats and terminals are either driven by traffic conditions to use the canal as it exists or are in a financial position to anticipate the probable action of the state in rehabilitating the canal so that boats of four times the tonnage may be used. Two hundred ton barges can be used on the canal as it now exists, by firms which are financially able to keep a large fleet in continual operation. With rehabilitation, however, 800 ton barges can be used. The savings would be double the present difference in rail and barge rates. The rebuilding of the locks and aqueducts would also permit greater speed in the operation of all boats, large or small."

BURGLARS LOOT CHICAGO AND ALTON STATION AT SINCLAIR

Break Into Building While Agent is in Ashland and Secure $50.

Between the hours of 6 and 10 o'clock Friday night burglars broke in to the Chicago & Alton passenger station at Sinclair and secured $50 from the ash drawer.

The burglary was committed while the agent Mr. Knapp was in Ashland, he having gone to that place on the evening train, which passes through Sinclair about 6 o'clock and when he returned at 10 o'clock he found that the building had been broken into and the money taken. He had seen no suspicious characters about the building before he left, which leads the authorities to believe that the person or persons committing the burglary was well acquainted with the whereabouts of the agent. The matter was reported to the police in this city but at a late hour last night no clue to the burglar had been found.

DR. E. F. BAKER ADDRESSES CONGREGATIONAL BROTHERHOOD

Gives Account of His Four Months Tour of Europe at Meeting Friday Night.

At the regular meeting of the Congregational Brotherhood, Friday evening Dr. E. F. Baker gave a most delightful account of his four months tour of Europe. The members of the brotherhood met at 6:30 o'clock where supper was served, and afterward they adjourned to a room on the first floor of the building where the lecture was given to a large audience, which thoroughly appreciated Dr. Baker's very interesting talk. Dr. Baker gave a brief outline of his trip from New York to London and of the many chief points of interest in this great city and also told of the witnessing of the army inspection which took place near St. James Park, called "Trooping of the Colors." A number of the best drilled regiments of the English army took part in the drill and the maneuvers were witnessed by King George V., Queen Mary, the chief military officers, members of the cabinet and ambassadors of foreign nations. Dr. and Mrs. Baker secured their tickets from the inspection through the late Ambassador Whitelaw Reid, at his office in London. He then told of his trips to Paris, Rome, Naples, Pompeii, Vesuvius, Florence and its art treasures, Venice, Milan, down the Rhein to Cologne, Berlin including a trip to Potsdam, Amsterdam, Isle of Marken, Brussels, the battlefield of Waterloo, Oxford with its colleges, Windsor Palace, back to London and then to Edinburgh, Glasgow, Liverpool and then back to New York. At the close of the lecture Dr. Baker was given a vote of thanks by the Brotherhood.
